Higher costs force $23,000 increase; library gets part

Arlington Heights, as a municipality is getting into the big business bracket. The 1948-49 budget, passed Monday evening, was within $6,000 of $200,000. The budget for last year was a little less than $170,000. The increase is $24,000.

All of the increased budget does not mean added taxes, as some of that amount will be derived from receipts other than taxes.

Employees of the village asked and receive larger salaries than a year ago, but budget contains no salary increase for the mayor and members of the board of trustees. They receive a total of $1940 for operating a $193,000 business.

Modernizing of the clerks' office by purchase of new machinery requires an extra $5,000. Slight salary increases are provided for the treasurer's office with an added $700 for supplies, etc.

LEGAL services have been raised from $2,000 to $3,000, with an additional $1,000 for engineering fees. Even telephone service costs more, $125. Receipts from building fees more than pay for salary of the building commissioner, and the present building boom makes necessary provision for $3,000 in place of the usual $2,000.

FIRE DEPARTMENT will operate under previous budget except an additional $200 for fire hose.

The health department is expected to operate the coming year without any additional cost. The village is allowing $200 less the coming year for salaries and labor in operation of sewage treatment plant, but is adding $2500 for new equipment and repairs.

STREET DEPARTMENT is one of the major departments of the municipality. Provision is made in the new budget for expenditure of $36,000 which is only slightly greater than previous year. Eight thousand dollars is again included for purchase of new equipment.

The water department is entirely self supporting. The receipts are more than ample to pay all costs and also to set aside substantial amounts for bonds and interest that makes possible capital for improvement. Its budget for the coming year is $38,000 over $5,000 less than a year ago.

GARBAGE disposal is a problem of the future and the village is building up an initial fund for purchase of a site. There is set aside each year $1,000 earmarked for such a purpose. The present garbage dump has outlived its usefulness.

PUBLIC LIBRARY will have $600 additional to spend for new books and a like amount for new shelving. This year's budget is $6500 in place of $5000, a meager amount in the minds of many for a town the size of Arlington Heights to maintain a public library. A saving of $1500 is made in money required for the pension funds of the municipal employees.

The new budget appears in this issue.

Seek to rezone highway lots for new Poole Ford garage

A public hearing will be held in Arlington Heights village hall Thursday, July 15, at 8 p. m. to discuss rezoning of residential property to allow construction of a new garage by George C. Poole, Inc.

The property in question consists of two lots on the southeast corner of Walnut and Fremont streets, opposite the Lutheran old folks home.

Parking praise

That's what Tom Hart has for Arlington's new parking ordinance, and the way it has opened up those choice parking spots for the benefit of all drivers.

And read what Tom says about the New Look, especially as it appears at Arlington Park.

All this and more homey philosophy, too, is this week's Tales of the Street column by Tom Hart.

Check artist comes to grief here

Alert business man causes arrest; Des Plaines firms also victimized

The alertness of Dan Senne, proprietor of the Emerald Shop, Arlington Heights resulted in the arrest in Arlington last Saturday of Gordon Bergquist, alias Robert Hayes, who had cashed three worthless checks in Arlington Heights and for whom the police of Des Plaines, Dundee, Maywood, Woodstock and Crystal Lake have warrants charging similar activities in those towns.

Bergquist came to grief when he presented a $20 check, drawn on Arlington Heights National Bank, at the Emerald Shop. He gave 313 south Pine as his address. Mr. Senne happens to reside in that vicinity and knew that there are no homes in the 300 block of that street. Refusing to cash the check, Senne notified the Arlington Heights police.

A check of Arlington business houses revealed that $20 checks had been cashed at the Hartman shoe store, Arlington Bootery and the A & P store. Mr. Hartman, riding in the squad car, located Bergquist at Evergreen and the Highway where he was about to board a bus.

THE CHECK ARTIST had not had time to spend any of the money and readily paid up when confronted with the men whom he had attempted to victimize.

Judge Behrens, called into the case, refused to release the prisoner until the police of other towns had been contacted.

The arrest was broadcast and it was not long before word of worthless checks were received from four other towns.

Bergquist used an alias, Robert Hayes, for his honest life, working under that name at the Edgewater Beach as an electrician and formerly at the Buick plant, living at that time in Des Plaines.

Checks signed by him were all for $20 and signed by his own name. He had in his possession books of checks from several neighboring banks, including Mt. Prospect.

As attempted proof of his solvency, check stubs showed deposits and he carried down supposedly bank balances.

WHEN TURNED over to Des Plaines police, Chief Becker immediately recognized him as a former resident and said he had learned that he had deserted a wife and three children at Wichita, Kansas. He is also reported to have married a second time June 15, three days after he lost his hotel job on June 12. Six Des Plaines business men have had checks issued by this man.

According to information in the hands of Arlington police, Gordon cashed checks in Dundee and Des Plaines in May, in Woodstock and Crystal Lake early in June, in Maywood June 15 and in Arlington Heights June 21. Elgin was also visited.

HAVING PAID UP in Arlington, local business men have no charge against the check artist. The man was given a hearing before Judge Sengstock Monday and on a continuation of the case is resting in the Des Plaines jail. If business men in other towns in which he operated prosecute, jail sentence in Cook county will be followed by one in Kane county and later in McHenry county—all because he guessed wrong on a street address in Arlington Heights.

Widening plans ready next week

Engineers expect to complete their plans for the combination street widening and ornamental lighting system by next week. They will be checked by the citizens advisory committee before being turned over to the village.

Necessary red tape will probably delay the actual construction until next spring. In the meantime conditions on South Dunton are bad. The use of that street for all day and shopping parking hinder its use as a two way street. Its South traffic only would alleviate the condition.

At present cars going in either direction frequently have to wait until the block is clear of moving vehicles.

Arlington Heights Days celebration

Arlington Heights Days celebration starts Friday night and continues until midnight Monday. The rides are unusual including many novelties in carnival attractions.

Ball fans will have a double header Sunday when the Legion junior team will play Melrose Park juniors at one o'clock followed by the Red Wing team. Red Wings will also play Monday.

Entertainment will be provided each evening when the headlines of the recent amateur shows will appear.

The biggest feature of the carnival will be the fireworks on Monday evening.

Merle Guild Post is cooperating with the Chamber of Commerce in giving the people of this area for the July 4th week-end an entertaining 4-day festival with a lot of trimmings.

Busse centennial Sunday afternoon

The celebration of the Busse family centennial takes place Sunday afternoon. Outdoor services will be held in the Busse-Alten Memorial park at 2:30 when the Rev. E. H. H. Gade will deliver the centennial address. Rev. J. E. A. Mueller will be the liturgist.

Walter Kirchhoff, chairman of the arrangement committee will preside.

The Hon. Werner W. Schroeder, Republican national committeeman will give a talk, "The New Country of the Busse." Mayor Pendleton will present a congratulatory resolution passed by the Mt. Prospect village board.

The Elk Grove band in which a number of the Busses held membership fifty years ago, will play the closing hymn.

Following the services a family picnic for the members of the Busse family and their friends will be held. In case of rain the services will be held in the church and the reunion in the schoolhouse.

ROCK RIVER CONFERENCE REAPPOINTS MINISTERS IN ARLINGTON, PALATINE

There will be no changes in Arlington Heights or Palatine Methodist ministry appointments, according to results of the 109th annual Rock River conference being held in Chicago this week.

However, there will be a new superintendent for Chicago northern district, the Rev. Dr. Weldon E. Bradburn.

Lussman heads Lions; membership over 90

With a membership of ninety-two and dinner attendance over 50, Arlington Heights Lions decided at its recent election that two tail twisters and two lion tamers were necessary to do a proper job. Interest in the club has been in the good dinner served by the Lutheran ladies are at a high point and Wm. Lussman, the newly elected president thinks that he has sufficient man power to do some real community jobs during the coming twelve months. Announcement of completed plans will be made after the new board of directors have had the opportunity to consider recommendations regarding jobs that need doing in Arlington.

Otto Wulbecker, retiring president, says that he is ready to throw the spot light on club activities and if newspaper publicity will spur the boys on to actual achievements, the club should go places the coming year.

Officers will be inducted into their new jobs Tuesday July 6 when they will be installed by Lion District Governor Arthur Loutsch of Morton Grove. Quentin Ford who has been temporary secretary will serve in his own right the coming year. The Police to acquire 3-wheel 'horse' for parking patrol

Arlington Heights police department, which recently acquired a new policeman, may soon add a three-wheel motorcycle to its enforcement division.

The three-wheeled steed would mean greater efficiency in checking autos in the loop for violations of the recently-passed limited-parking ordinance.

The village board Monday night heard Alderman William Luehring, chairman of the police committee, explain that at least one man was needed to take care of the parking situation in the downtown area.

"The new motorcycle for the officer would more than pay for its cost," Luehring stated, "for village law enforcement would be more efficient, and catching more violators would mean more money for the village coffers."

Cost of the new motorcycle is approximately $900 and would be paid for from the new equipment fund of $5,500.

Alderman Luehring also stated an additional officer should be added to the police force to regulate enforcement of business licenses.

"One man should be assigned to checking business licenses," he said. "The village is losing money because of such violations."

In considering its annual budget report, the board added $11,500 to the police department allowance for the coming fiscal year for a total of $35,150. Last year the police department budget totaled approximately $23,650, for a difference of approximately $4,300.

"We're a growing village," Luehring asserted, "and should have at least seven, and preferably eight police officers on the job, instead of the present six."

He also added that the police department and village had received numerous compliments for its efficient enforcement of limited parking.

"Adding the one or two new officers would be a sure cure against parking meters in Arlington Heights," he asserted.

Luehring's recommendations for the eight-man police force provides for five officers for patrol duty, one officer for parking violations, one officer or business licenses and one officer for relief duty.

At the Monday night board meeting, Aldermen also voted to advertise for bids for a new squad car and a new fire truck.

Bids will be open July 19, and should be filed with Village Clerk Forrest F. Davis.

Arlington to have open-air concerts at Recreation 'bowl'

For the price of a song, Arlington Heights citizens can attend a concert by a 70-piece band, whose members don't even receive the price of a song for their time and work in bringing good music to Arlington Heights.

First concert by the group, Arlington Heights Community band, will be Thursday, July 8, at 8 p. m. at Recreation park, under the direction of Frederick Schmoyer, band director at Arlington high school.

Admission to the affair is only the desire to hear a well-planned and well-rehearsed concert.

The first local appearance will be a patriotic concert, which will include these selections: "Anchors Aweigh," "American Patrol," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Over There" and "The Stars and Stripes."

The band, composed of high school and college students, and adults, devotes four days a week to this summertime project, and will present a concert every Thursday evening during the summer months.

This is the third year the community band has brought concerts to Arlington, and its members include musicians from Barrington, Palatine, Mt. Prospect, Wheeling, Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights. Twenty-five members have been added since last summer.

"We practice an hour and a half every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the Thursday presentation," Schmoyer stated, "and the eagerness that band members have shown in the concerts will result in many fine music programs."

The weekly concerts will depend in part on the amount of interest shown by local audiences.

On Monday, July 5, the band will play in Racine, Wis., in a parade celebrating Wisconsin's centennial celebration, and will present another concert in the afternoon.

Scenes of Recreational plot to be taken in schools, park, and churches here

Get out the grease paint, and turn on the charm, kids. You're in the movies now!

Some Arlington Heights citizens may have been too busy to notice the movie cameras that were brought into town early Wednesday morning, but a look in the direction of Recreation park may reveal klieg lights, hidden "mikes," and jodhpur-clad directors shooting scenes of youngsters at play.

Arlington Heights has been chosen as a model town in regard to recreation facilities for youngsters, and an educational movie, with Recreation park, schools and churches as locales, will be filmed here during the next three to four weeks. According to the Athletic Institute, non-profit organization making the film, the movie cast will include all local citizens who happen to be in front of the right camera at the right time. Scenes will be shot in the high school and grade schools, the village hall, several churches, and on downtown streets, but most of the film will center around recreation park and the play-time activities offered to youngsters there. "The filming will be done by Dallas Jones productions, of Chicago."

AMERICAN PHYSICAL Education association selected Arlington Hts. as the model town for the educational film, which will be used by universities, colleges, teachers' groups, communities and other organizations throughout the country.

The project is being sponsored locally by Arlington Heights grade and high school boards of education and Arlington Heights park board, and was approved officially at a meeting Tuesday night, June 29.

"We feel very proud and honored that Arlington Heights has been selected as a town with excellent facilities for its youngsters," Nick Latoff, president of the grade school board of education told the meeting, "and I'm certain all citizens will be glad to cooperate in the project."

"WE ARE HAPPY over the invitation," R. M. Beatty, park board president, asserted. "All the park (Continued on Page Seven)"

A letter from Chapters ER and FW, of the P. E. O., also questioned the advisability of trailer communities.

Arlington Heights Nurse's club, in a letter written by Mrs. Helen R. McAuliffe, also registered a formal protest, giving similar reasons of health hazards and overcrowding of education facilities.

A Chicago woman, whose disabled war veteran son has a home on Wilke road near Kirchhoff, informed the board through a letter that trailer camp sewage was flooding land owned by her son.

"Can the board see to it that deeper ditches are dug or that another remedy be authorized?" she asked the board.

Since the property in question is outside village limits, the board agreed to inform the complainant that the question would be referred to the county board of health. Village officials also passed a resolution to file formal objections to trailer communities with Robert Kingery, head of the county board of health.

If conditions do not improve at the present trailer camp site, the board also has agreed to file a complaint with the state's attorney.

Jos. A. Wisersky, speaking for Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce and American Legion, asked the board to straighten a mix-up in Fourth of July weekend dates for the festival sponsored by the two groups.

"We asked the park board for permission to barricade Douglas street for the event," he stated, "but we didn't realize we needed village board permission, too."

The board granted the request and gave permission to barricade Douglas street from Northwest highway to Miner street from June 29 through July 6.

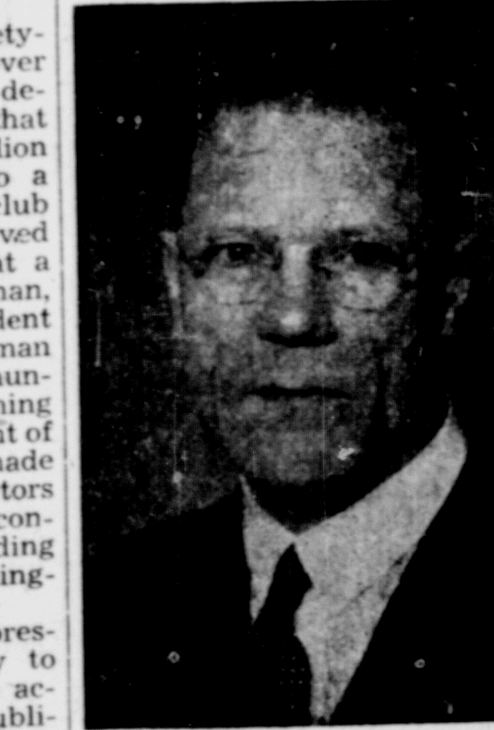

Membership of the Board of Local Improvement will be the mayor and six trustees. It is 18 years since such a board has been given any work to do. Street widening will come under its jurisdiction.

"Arlington Heights is growing so fast we feel a certain supervision is needed to see that the town grows in the right directions," Mayor Goedke stated.

Village ordinance 714 also was passed at the meeting, providing for the annexation of five lots to village territory. One piece of property is at 615 Rockwell street, Scarsdale estates, and four homes are on South State road.

At later dates events in the program, which are taking shape at the present time, will be announced to the public.

Norman Dewey, new treasurer of the Arlington Heights Lions Club, is shown in the photo. He is a member of the club and has been elected to the position.

ings from his congregation and the Chicago Circuit Pastoral conference, the Rev. Owen Gangstead, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Long Lake, assisted in the service.

THE HISTORY of the congregation was read at the service
by the vice president of the congregation, A. F. Dalia, Sr. He traced, in the history, the early beginnings of the congregation up to the present, showing the progress made in membership, christian stewardship and physical equipment. The history also revealed that the congregation has completed the present project without the conducting of a building fund campaign among its members or in the community.

The entire project has been made possible through the regular weekly christian stewardship of the members of the congregation and the financing by the church extension fund of the church body. The membership of the church today is about 170 souls.

DURING THE service the pastor of the congregation B. T. Anderson, displayed and placed in a copper box, the items to be placed in the cornerstone. They were as follows: the holy bible, catechism, history and constitution of the congregation, annual report for 1947, list of charter members, a current issue of the Mt. Prospect Herald, The Prospect, Lutheran Herald, Chicago Lutheran Messenger, Service Folder of the Day and a number of recent coins.

At this point in the service the congregation, preceded by the clergy, moved in procession from the sanctuary to the site of the cornerstone. The clergy then joined in the service of laying the cornerstone in the name of the Triune God. The benediction and singing of the doxology closed the service.

Install Night Cooling now!

How a Night Cooling Fan Works
An attic or window fan in your house or apartment lowers the inside temperature by pulling in cool night air, circulating it through the living quarters and forcing out the blanket of hot, dead air. This moving air speeds the evaporation of skin moisture - thus, you feel cooler immediately!

Sure, it was hot last summer... and it's going to be hot again this year. More than two months of over 85° temperatures are in store for this area... and you! You can plan now to beat the heat - install a night cooling fan in your house or apartment.

Even the hottest days are bearable when you've had a good night's sleep. In a night cooled home, the hot, stifling air that keeps you tossing for hours is drawn out of the rooms... and replaced by cool, refreshing night air from outside. This gently moving air makes you feel cooler... le's you sleep in comfort... and lowers the temperature of the rooms.

Don't wait for the hot weather to get here. Find out about this new way to summer sleeping comfort.

Brookfield zoo trip next on list for kids in Arlington summer play setup

Swimming, softball, ping pong, play day, other activities

A trip to the Brookfield zoo is the headline coming event for kids participating in the Arlington Heights park district recreation program. Youngsters up to 14 years of age will make the trip July 15 under direction of supervisors, Ruth Karstens, Lorrell Middel and Chuck Johnson.

A chartered bus will leave the Recreation Park at 8 a. m. and return about 4 p. m. Transportation fee is 50 cents with parents advised to give their children a little more to cover cost of peanuts and soft drinks. Each child is asked to bring his own lunch.

Because of the limited size of the bus, the first fifty children registering for the trip with payment of fee, will be given preference on the trip. All names of those wishing to attend must be in by July 10.

SWIMMING continues to be a major part of the recreation program, according to director Frank Vokac. Tremendous response for the class swimming lessons has necessitated a new schedule for free class lessons.

Beginner swimmers will be checked in at the door. Doors will open at 12:30 for beginner girls, and at 12:45 for beginner boys. Then will come swimmer classes, boys and girls.

Teaching schedule includes: Beginner girls class starts at 1:30. Beginner boys class starts at 2:00.

Swimmer boys and girls class starts at 2:30. Observance of strict time schedules is necessary for the complete program.

PING PONG took the lime-light Wednesday of last week when "Old Sol" disappeared and rain clouds came up, postponing the park softball tournament. From four teams in this softball tourney will be picked two all-star teams to play other parks.

Wayne Hesch was the champ in ping pong after battling through very tough competition. Hesch received stiffest opposition from Richie Stocking and Koppeler, while in the lower bracket Bob Chamberlain breezed through his opposition. Bob and Wayne met in the finals, Hesch winning after a nip and tuck battle.

SOFTBALL games with other towns started Monday, the sixth graders winning from Des Plaines, 7-6. It was an extra inning tussle on the Des Plaines diamond.

Eddie Fritz was the local hitting star with four hits in five trips to the plate. Fifteen safeties were garnered by the entire squad.

Seventh and eighth graders were just too rough for Des Plaines in their contest, and won, 11-5. The locals counted seven times the first two innings and were never headed.

Wayne Hesch led the Arlington team with three for four, with Bill Lynk contributing a home run in the sixth frame with two on.

PLAY DAY was held for the children of Arlington Heights Saturday morning. Don Peeters directed the older boys' activities while Esther Karstens and Lauriel Middel supervised individual and group games for girls from four to 14, and boys under eight.

First place winners were given ribbons, with everyone receiving suckers. Attendance at these park activities has been good, but playtime directors hope for even more youngsters. Parents interested can gain information at the fieldhouse between 9:30 and 10:30 Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings.

Winners of the individual contests held Saturday are as follows:

Bean bag throw: Jr.—Dolly Mueller, Simone Malchow, Richard Vanstee; Sr.—Myra Lee Clausing, Patsy Rascher, Celia Ann Close.

Dodge ball, etc.: Jr.—Simone Malchow, Janice Clausing, Jane Shaefer. Sr.—Myra Lee Clausing, Jerry Moehling, Carol Mueller.

Ring toss: Jr.—Dean Moehling, Richard Vanstee, Lee Moore.

Bubble gum contest: Jr.—Jane Shaefer, Janice Clausing, Simone Malchow. Sr.—Rose Meyer, Myra Lee Clausing, Karen Meyer.

Scavenger hunt: Sr.—Geraldine Moehling, Carol Mueller.

London bridge: Jr.—Charlotte Wiggins, Judy Cowan, Dolly Mueller.

Moving steps: Jr.—Janice Clausing, Richard Vanstee, Billy Spomer.

Marble guessing: Sr.—Geraldine Moehling, Audrey Gronert, Carol Mueller.

GIRL'S WATER ballet group, better known here at the Recreation Park as Club Aqua, is now fully organized. Since June 21 the girls have practiced from 11 to 12 every day in order to improve their strokes and to build up an endurance necessary before routine work can begin.

This week a test will be given to divide the group into two parts. Those girls who have the ability to do harder stunts and have better swimming form will make up the major group. The remaining girls, many of whom are having their first experience with water ballet work, will compose the minor group.

At present, enrollment of Club Aqua is 25 members. They are the following: Dolores Grant, Joan Davis, Sylvia Brown, Pat Ryden, Jo Winterbauer, Martha Collins, Ruth Lois Gronert, Carol Cox, Pat Engelking, Cathie Shanklin, Mary Lou Walters. (These girls have participated in shows of the past two years): Myrna Keiser, Amelia Silvestre, Ann Marie Milminow, Carolyn Hinneberg, Nancy Scott, Mary Jo Gabel, Betsy Klink, Darlene Meierhoffer, Nancy Stocking, Judy Peterson, Bonnie Peterson, Dorothy Heidorn, Jill Robertson, and Carol Hoffer. The ages of these girls run from 11 to 18 years.

Plans are being made for a large swim show at home plus two out of town programs. Anyone interested in joining the group is encouraged to act soon. For additional information call Esther Karstens at the Field House, phone 620 on Monday, Wednesday or Friday mornings, from 9:30 to 10:30.

Approve legality of county voting machines

Voting machines are legal for Cook county voters and the city of Chicago was directed to pay the $130,000 due on the 100 machines used at April primary, Judge Harry M. Fisher ruled Thursday in circuit court.

The ruling came after several days exhaustive hearings which delved into technicalities of two machines now on the market and specifications set up by the voting machine act.

Meanwhile a county board committee had the two machines under consideration and was preparing to submit a report for the meetings of the board next week.

Judge Fisher announced he was deciding the case not so much on technical questions but on the broader base of the legislature's intent in passing the act.

"It is clear that the legislature sought a method of greater expedition in tabulating the votes than in the printed ballot and finding means to guard against fraud and corruption," the judge commented. He pointed out that when the Act was passed there were only two machines on the market, the Automatic and the Shoup, both of which machines are still the only ones manufactured. The legislature made an attempt at setting up specifications at what the machines must do, but did not mean to specify the operations so as to create a monopoly.

"The gist is either we are going to have voting machines or we are not," Judge Fisher declared. He ruled the county would have the machines.

"THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW"—SAYS THE LADY TO THE LAW

Pretty Joan Elgin drives the last of 301 nails into a tire equipped with the new General Puncture-Sealing tube while Highway Patrol Officers Stanley Adomaitis and W. A. Sternad look on. Even with 301 nails in it, this tire didn't lose a pound of air.

"There ought to be a law requiring the use of puncture-sealing tubes," says Miss Elgin, "and then we wouldn't see so many accidents resulting from punctures."

Officers Sternad and Adomaitis see many other highway safety advantages in these new General Puncture-Sealing tubes. The repairing of flat tires on crowded highways is always dangerous, both to the man repairing the tire and to passing traffic. A lot of lives will be saved if motorists insist on tubes that just won't go flat from ordinary punctures. The new General Puncture-Sealing tube is on sale at George C. Poole, Inc., Arlington Heights Ford Dealer.

Hold it, Henry — some bugs help

For centuries, man has waged an unremitting war against insect enemies. Undoubtedly, this is the prime reason why so many of us may overlook the fact that some bugs are mankind's faithful servants. In our efforts to rout the insect scourges, we forget the important role bug benefactors play in making for the better life.

One of the most important things our insect friends do, of course, is pollinate blossoms and in that way help produce flowers, fruits and seeds, reminds Martin L. Davey, Jr., president of The Dewey Tree Expert Co. Everybody thinks of beetles as ravenous leaf devourers. Yet along with bees, butterflies and moths, beetles are helpful in cross-pollination. The ladybug, of the beetle family, goes her kin one better by feeding on destructive scales insects, aphids and other soft-bodied creatures or their eggs... and not on your pet foliage. And, by the way, scale insects and aphids are two of the very worrisome enemies with which your shade trees have to contend.

IN THE SAME benevolent category with the ladybug, although you'll never believe it, is the syrphid, better known as the flower fly, which also dines on tree enemies, especially aphids.

Some insects produce knobby growths on trees called galls. If it happened to your trees you wouldn't think it good. However, tannic acid is obtained from insect galls. This is used for tanning furs and leathers. Permanent inks and dyes are made from other insect galls.

Even the common angworm does his bit by aerating soil and helping tree roots breathe. Among man's most productive insect friends are the honeybee and the silkworm.

Loretta Leckband marries Iowa pastor

Miss Loretta Leckband, daughter of Mrs. Emil Leckband, and sister of Mrs. Oscar Hinrichs and Dr. Norbert Leckband of Arlington Heights, was united in holy matrimony with Reverend Gerhard Hattendorf, at the Immanuel Lutheran church, Odebolt, Iowa, June 16.

Baskets of white peonies and vases of cut flowers decorated the church. Rev. G. H. Schaefer officiated at the double ring, candlelight ceremony. Miss Marilyn Leckband and Miss Janet Klindt, nieces of the bride, preceded the wedding party, holding lighted candles and lighted the tall candelabra which stood on either side of the altar.

Miss Elaine Klindt, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Evelyn Bremer.

Little Miss Yvonne Hinrichs of Arlington Heights, served as ring bearer and flower girl for the bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Richard Leckband. The bride was gowning in an ice blue dress, and wore white gloves, slippers, and lace hat. She also had on a pearl necklace, which was a gift of the bridegroom, and had a white tulip corsage.

Mrs. Oscar Hinrichs served her sister as matron of honor, and Mr. Hinrichs served the bridegroom as best man. Daryl Hattendorf and Royce Leckband acted as ushers.

FIESTA!

The small f-y enjoy fiesta time every bit as much as the older generation, says this young lady who shakes her maracas and indulges in a bit of fiesta frivolity. For her playtime frolic the little girl wears a gaily printed fine wale cotton pique playsuit by Juniors of California with a ruffle for a make-believe skirt.

New Neighbors ...

Mr. and Mrs. J. Burgermeister
1700 Kensington road
Arlington Heights

"It was a coincidence that the house we liked best was situated in Arlington Heights," Polly Burgermeister told the inquiring reporter, "but we're more glad of that fact every day. We think Arlington Heights is a wonderful town, and the perfect place to raise children."

The couple has one child, Johnny, 4 years old, who has an acre "back yard" for future growing room. Now that spring is here, he shares much of the out of doors with "Mittsy," his pet pup. "Mittsy" is so named because he is all black but has four white feet (or mitts).

Before the Burgermeisters moved to Arlington Heights, March 11, they lived in Park Ridge for two years. Home town for both, however, is Merrill, Wisconsin.

Mr. Burgermeister is operator and co-owner of the Park Ridge Clinical laboratory, so he doesn't have to acquire a commuter's "constitution."

For hobbies, the Burgermeisters have flower and vegetable gardens, and at present are raising approximately 100 chickens on their one-acre property.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Fellows
811 E. Euclid
Arlington Heights

"Very clean," "Nice town," and "Convenient enough to the loop" were some of the reasons why these new neighbors moved to Arlington Heights. Marjorie Fellows told the inquiring reporter.

"Like many other couples, we were suburb-hunting and house-hunting," she continued, "and couldn't possibly have been satisfied in any other location."

The Fellows moved to our town the first week of April from Griffith, Indiana, and have a daughter, Diane, 3 years old. Little Diane is a blue-eyed blonde and is a full-time "hobby" for her mother.

Mr. Fellows is an abrasive engineer, and travels to suburban Chicago areas for his company, the Bay State Abrasive Products company of Westboro, Mass.

Americans have been jealous of their freedom. No less than seven times have our sons gone to war to preserve our way of life.

Today, folks right here in this community are fighting for financial independence with this same intense determination that they have inherited from their ancestors. The well-being of our town speaks highly of their efforts.

J. G. Alcock insists most people are honest. For 17 years he has left his display stock out overnight on the sidewalk of his hardware store at Bayboro, N. C., and in that time has lost articles by theft only once or twice. Occasionally a customer will come along after store hours and pick up some needed item, but usually, says Alcock, he will come around later and settle up. Alcock's failure to move his stock inside is also partly due to the fact that he just hasn't room for it on his shelves.

district facilities will be at the company's disposal for the film.

"The play acting will be a wonderful experience for the children, in addition to being a great deal of fun," Elmer F. Laurin, high school board president stated.

A committee to work with the Chicago groups will be headed by LeRoy Knoepfel, principal of Arlington Heights high school, as contact man assisted by Ralph E. Clabaugh, superintendent of elementary schools, and Mr. Vokac.

THE 20-MINUTE MOVIE, as yet unnamed, will be a sequel to "Playtown, U. S. A.," which the institute produced several years ago. A brief synopsis of the local "moom pitcher" is this: Arlington Heights, a thriving, civic-minded community, has just cut the tape on a program of splendid play-time activities and facilities for its youth.

For two or three months, the plan works amazingly well; almost all signs of juvenile delinquency disappear and all children share equally in the playground facilities. Gradually, however, the more skilled children monopolize the pool, tennis courts and other playground equipment, and the losers revert to their former haunts and mischief.

Citizens finally realize the need for adequate leadership, and a man and woman experienced in supervising children's recreation, are hired to remedy the situation. The rest of the movie is devoted to showing the happy results of adequate guidance and leadership.

The "Playtown, U. S. A." movie, which was filmed at Decatur, Illinois, showed the development of a youth recreation program, but failed to emphasize the need for competent guidance. The local movie also will deal more intensively with recreation for adults, and plans are being made at present to recreate scenes and classes from the adult evening program at Arlington Heights high school.

THE FILM also will show scenes from the new vocational education shops just being completed at Arlington high school.

A representative of the Athletic Institute stated to the meeting that, although the name of Arlington Heights will not be used throughout the movie, credit and recognition will be given to the city in the introductory title.

"We find it wise to omit mention of the town in the actual movie," he stated, "because other cities interested in starting recreation programs begin comparing the size or location of the towns, instead of concentrating on their own special needs."

"Also, we've found that many southern towns do not react favorably to too much publicity, about northern towns."

FRANK VOKAC and Don Peeters, Recreation Park assistants, are already working with Robert Wesley, in charge of filming for Dallas Jones productions, and are planning schedules for scenes featuring local youngsters.

"I've already taught some of the kids their lines," Frank Vokac asserted, "and they've all been alerted to be on the spot when the first camera arrives."

The script, which has been studied by Mr. Vokac for several weeks, was ten months in preparation. The Institute looked for months for an ideal location and after coming to Arlington Hts., found the town was "made for the script."

HUMPTY-DUMPTY
hit a stone wall,
After too many drinks from the keg;
His car took fire-made a funeral pyre,
And now he's just a fried egg!

Funny? No!—Humpty Dumpty's kind of death is only stupid—and criminal.

Look at the facts: Drinking drivers cause one out of every five highway deaths. When innocent victims perish, too, that's manslaughter! It must be dealt with by strict laws, strictly enforced.

Even one or two drinks slow reactions, impair judgment, increase accident chances three to four times.

Drinking and driving just don't mix. If you drive, don't drink. If you drink, don't drive.

Helen Meineke, Ralph Stippick tie the knot

Glowing candlelight, and baskets of white carnations, snapdragons, and bachelor-buttons formed the church setting for the wedding of Miss Helen Meineke and Ralph E. Stippick, who were married June 26 at the First Congregational church, Des Plaines.

Miss Meineke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Meineke of Des Plaines and Mr. Stippick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Stippick of Arlington Heights.

The couple said their "I Do's" after Rev. Brehm, who performed the double ring ceremony. Two songs, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Lois Carlson, who was accompanied at the organ by Joyce Nimtz. Mr. Meineke gave his daughter in marriage.

A frosted taffeta nylon dress, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, leg of mutton sleeves, and full skirt ending in a train, was worn by the bride. She wore a fingertip veil that was edged in lace and fastened to a tiara of net and lace. Her jewelry consisted of a cameo lavalier, which had been given to her mother by her father on their wedding day. White roses, shaped into a colonial bouquet, were carried by the bride.

Mrs. Edith Dangel, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. Her light blue taffeta gown was styled with an off the shoulder neckline and bustle back. Setting off the dress was a large light blue hat, blue mitts and a cameo necklace. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and light blue delphiniums.

Bridesmaids were Carole Shannon and Aileen James, who were gowned alike in yellow taffeta dresses, styled as the matron of honor's, and carried bouquets of yellow daisies, and blue delphiniums. The bride's niece, Judy Meineke, served as flower girl. She was dressed in light blue taffeta and wore blue delphiniums in her hair.

Best man for the bridegroom was Donald Kiehl, with William Dangel and Roy Meineke acting as ushers.

A buffet supper was served immediately following the ceremony, in the church parlors. The buffet table was adorned with yellow and white daisies and was centered with a three tier wedding cake, each tier beir separated with plastic pillars. One hundred guests were present at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Stippick are enjoying a honeymoon motoring through Wisconsin and Minnesota. They will be at home after July 12 at 1615 Henry avenue, Des Plaines.

Dinner party

A dinner party held Friday evening reunited several friends who had graduated from Arlington Heights schools together.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kuhlén of Venezuela, South America. The Kuhlens are visiting Mrs. Kuhlén's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson, in Arlington Heights. She is the former Lorraine Nelson.

The former Lorraine Meier, now Mrs. Miles Briggs, and her husband of Greensboro, N. Car., were also present at the party. Miss Dorothy Becker, another member of the group, who lives in Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. George Huff and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wiese, all of Arlington Heights, completed the get together.

Stork Feathers

A daughter was born June 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansing of Minneapolis, Minn. They have named the little girl, Lorn. Mr. Hansing is a former resident of Arlington Heights, and his mother, Mrs. Emma Hansing, who still lives here, is in Minneapolis at present caring for the Hansing's other daughter, Barbara, while her mother is in the hospital.

Historic Bear Tracks

A wounded bear, followed by a pioneer hunter, in 1874 led to the discovery of the Oregon caves near Grants Pass in southern Oregon. The caves, deep in the heart of Mt. Eljah, offer more than two miles of passageways and marble rooms filled a wealth of fanciful formations.

Activities about Arlington Heights

Now home after flying to the west coast and back is Mrs. E. A. Elfeld. Enroute to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lillie Elfeld, in Huntington Beach, Calif., Mrs. Elfeld stopped at Tucson, Ariz., where she was the guest of the Forrest Nichols family. While there she attended the wedding of the Nichols' daughter, Mrs. Elfeld also had the opportunity to visit Orson Rau at Compton, Calif.

Mrs. E. H. Heller will be hostess to her bridge club this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brown of Grinnell, Iowa, were week end guests of Mr. Brown's aunt, Mrs. B. A. Noyes and family.

Thirty-five years of marriage was observed Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carncross. As a pre-celebration the Carncrosses spent the week end in Elkhorn, Wis., at the home of Mrs. Carncross's sister, Mrs. C. J. Rieck. The Riecks entertained at a family party Sunday in honor of the anniversary celebrants.

Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Paul Collins will entertain Mr. Collins' office associates and their wives. The group will attend the races at Arlington Park, then go out to supper.

Patty Ann Folkman has been confined to her home this week with the mumps. Her playmate, Kurt Zimmerman, has also been a recent victim of the mumps.

A summer house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Duenn Sr. is Mary Jane Beattie, their granddaughter, of Amberg, Wis.

Anita Glow is attending Girl Scout camp at Edgerton, Wis. She left Monday and will spend two weeks at Camp Hickory Hill.

Mrs. M. J. Wickstrom returned Friday to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Stockwell after a two months visit away from home. She spent one month visiting a son in Minnesota, and the other month visiting another son in Missouri.

The "500" club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Kost. The birthdays of three of the club members were celebrated at this time. Those having birthdays were Mesdames George Ladd, William Luehring and Stanley Woznick.

Mrs. C. P. Draper, who was injured in a fall several weeks ago, is now home from the St. Francis hospital, Evanston. She wishes to take this method of thanking all her friends for being so kind to her during her confinement. Her daughter, Lillian Draper of Chicago, will be here to take care of her for the next two weeks.

Terry Sesterhenn's cousin, Elaine Dietz, of Wilmette, spent several days this week visiting with the mumps.

Virginia Dodge, Arlington Heights postmaster, has returned from a weeks vacation trip that took her to Windsor, Canada, and Detroit, Mich.

The Dewey Becks will entertain Mr. and Mrs. James Beck and family of Kokomo, Ind., for the Fourth of July week end.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson and daughter, Alice, and Tom Korus left for a three weeks western trip. While the Olsons are gone Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clabour and children of Chicago will occupy their house.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. McDonald and children, Johnny and Sandra, moved recently to Fort Wayne, Ind. They formerly lived at 26 S. Highland ave.

Mrs. Harold Hastings, who was injured recently in an automobile accident, has been removed from the University hospital at Iowa City, Iowa, to the Illinois Masonic hospital, Chicago. She will be confined to the hospital for quite some time.

Dr. Norbert Leckband and his two sons, Norbert, Jr. and Garwood, have gone on a motor trip to Montana where they will visit the doctor's brother, Rev. Emerson Leckband. While gone they also expect to view the Black Hills and Yellowstone National Park. Mrs. Leckband and son, Richard, are visiting the Ottomar Leckband family in Ocheyedan, Iowa.

This week three Arlington Heights families are exchanging residences. Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Carr and family moved from their home at 409 S. Mitchell to the home they purchased on Plum Grove road, Palatine. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hertel and family moved into the home vacated by the Carrs. The Hertel apartment in the Krause building is now occupied by the Frank Thompson family, who formerly lived at 207 N. Evergreen. Dr. Carr is moving his offices from the Krause building to 207 N. Evergreen and will occupy his new offices by July 1. Harold Witt celebrated his seventh birthday Thursday afternoon with a party for a small group of his friends. Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Witt of Sherwood.

Chuck and Don Stadelman, accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stadelman, returned last week from a ten day fishing trip at Lake Minnetonka, near Excelsior, Minn. They found fishing good.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinsohn of Lake Zurich and Margaret Walt of Arlington Heights visited recently at the Ed Ponkonin home in Hebron.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yate and children will spend the Fourth of July week end at Lake Koshkonong, Wis. While there they will have Miss Mildred Brink of Chicago as their house guest.

erect 7600 more seats for Bears
at Wrigley Field

More than 7,600 new choice sideline seats will be available for football fans who watch the Chicago Bears next fall.

A new Field Stand, with college stadium type seats, will be erected on the east side of the Wrigley Field gridiron. The new East Stand, extending from goal line to goal line, will be built of tubular steel construction, and will cost the Chicago Cubs, who are erecting the stands for the use of the Bears, more than $125,000.

This new East Stand, with its 7,600 or more seats, will be 50 feet in height. The eye-level of the first row will be 8 feet from the ground, and each tier thereafter will have 8 inch risers, thus allowing away with any necessity of standing by spectators in the stands.

About 3,500 less desirable seats in the lower deck right field boxes, and part of the center field bleachers will be voided during the football season because of obstruction from the new stands. This is being done to make sure that every seat for football gives the fan a good view of the game, just as every seat does during the baseball season.

With 7,600 additional seats in the new East Stand, the Bears will be able to play before more than 50,000 fans at Wrigley field this fall. Bear officials describe the current season ticket sale as the greatest in the club's history.
With excellent sideline seats now available, this sale is expected to shatter all local records within the next few weeks.

Wheeling Cardinals win four in row

The Wheeling Cardinals softball team continued their winning streak last week to make it four in a row. Monday night they traveled to Highwood, where they played a very strong team and came out on top 7-2.
Their success was due to timely hitting and splendid twirling by Red Blue, the Cardinals' new pitcher, obtained from the North brook team in the North Shore League.

Thursday they played at Arlington Heights and won from Hasekams 4-0. In this game it was all Chuck Hall who allowed only one hit and struck out 15 batters.

Coming league games are Thursday, July 1 — Pape and Guenther at Arlington, Tuesday, July 6 — Riviera at Arlington, and Wed. July 7 — Libertyville at Libertyville, all of the games at 7 p. m.

3 teams gain in Arlington golf league league. Eddie's Liquors, who are only 1½ points out of second took 6½ from Drewes Electric, and Mar Johnson moved into fourth place by taking 6½ from Hartman's Shoe Store. Chuck Klenofen and Len Arnold took low gross honors of 32 and R.

Krenbrogg took low net with a nights of play are:

Chicago high school athletes can now play in two sports

Improved football and basketball teams are expected to materialize immediately in Chicago public high schools as the result of action taken last week to remove the ban which prevented students from participating in both sports during the same semester.

The shift in policy becomes effective when the schools reopen September 7. The move came after member schools voted favorably on the change in a poll conducted by the principal's committee on athletics and rules.

The vote had the effect of striking out the rule which stated that an athlete "shall not be allowed to compete in more than one of the following sports — football, soccer and basketball — in the same semester, nor shall he compete in basketball during the same school year if he played on the soccer or football team."

Secessionists led NE football over 9 years

Outcasts never did win grid season title

Lake Forest, leader of the Northeast conference secessionists, rated as top power in football championships among schools of the now defunct league. In fact, it was also Lake Forest who led the way from the old, unwieldy Northwest league back in 1938.

The Lake Foresters were undefeated in each of the four years they won championships,
once in a tie with Libertyville.
Over the span of those four top seasons, they were victors 24 times, but were tied twice.

BACK IN 1942 Libertyville and Lake Forest tied for the league lead with four wins, two ties, and one loss. Then in '44 the Lakers won six straights, and seven in a row in both the '46 and '47 seasons.

The Wildcats won solos in 1940 and 1943, with Crystal Lake winning in 1939 and '45. That '39 season, the first in Northeast competition, was the only time
the league winner was defeated.
McHenry county boys had a five and one slate that year.

PERHAPS the outstanding feature about the summary of football standings over the nine year period, is that not one of the "outcast" schools, Niles, Leyden or Arlington, ever won a gridiron title. From that aspect, the league breakup might be a good thing for these three schools.

In point of games won, Niles ranked second to the winners.
They accumulated 33 wins, against 18 losses and six ties. Lake Forest had 43 victories, against eight losses and three ties.

Woodstock, ending last five times, and next to last three, had just the opposite record of the Foresters. They copped five gridiron victories, while losing 43 and tying six.

Redwings to play 3 games in 4 days

Rain postpones Woodstock tilt until Friday

Rainfall, which began at noon
Sunday, soaked Recreation Park

to the extent that the Redwing-Woodstock game had to be postponed.

The game will be played as a twilight contest this Friday evening beginning at 6:15. Rules of the Northeast Illinois Baseball League require that postponed games must be played during the week to prevent any teams from dropping behind schedule.

JACK BRUMM will start against undefeated Woodstock Friday evening. The Redwings could move into a second place tie with the visitors by winning.
A Woodstock victory would tie them with Oak Park who won their third game last Saturday.

After completing their unfinished business with Woodstock Friday evening, there will be little rest for the local club.
Waukegan will be at Arlington
July 4 for another league game.
Manager Ed Wahl plans to start
Bill Stahlman in this contest.

First game of Sunday's doubleheader at Recreation Park will pitting the Arlington Heights Junior Legion nine testing Melrose Park. The Junior Legion game is scheduled for 1 p. m. While the Redwings will meet their opponents at the usual 3 p. m.

Monday, July 5, the Midwest
League team known as Fleck's Republicans, will play at Arlington. Schaefer will be on the mound in this affair with George Gaare behind the plate.

135 glistening trophies.
All-expense trips to Detroit for the international championship competition Aug. 13-23.

ery new world's speed record.

Those are the prize awards which will go to winning builders and fliers of model airplanes in the giant Plymouth Chicago Area Model Airplane Contest to be staged July 17-18 at the Naval Air Station in Glenview. The Plymouth dealers and the Naval Air Reserve Program are sponsoring the big contest, which will qualify local fliers for Plymouth's international finals.

Last week's early rush of entries into all classes of the big meet indicate that well over 500 model planes will be flown during the two-day show. The program will include 45 events, with indoor competition set for July 17 in the vast drill hall on the Naval Station July 18, on the 339-acre expanse of the great air base which is under command of Capt. Cecil B. Gill, USN.

Sunday, June 27, fourteen foursomes participated in a two ball foursome at Rob Roy Golf Course. A good time was had by all and prizes were awarded on the basis of low gross scores and Peoria system. A total of 30 prizes were given, major prizes being awarded to the 43 cross scores: Magdalene Cam-pelli paired with J. Saxs; Myrtle Westfall and Bob Beard; Marian Wales and Bill Teichert; Lola Rocker and Frank Foote.

Added attraction at the two-ball foursome was the appearance of Maise and Daisy who turned out to be two of our men golfers; Cully Berlin and Til Foy, made up as the two hags of newspaper fame. They carried the joke even further and drew two men as their partners and played the nine holes with them.

First time out, but he nabs three 20" fish in Wisconsin

When Leo Jacks of Arlington Heights announced he was heading for Pete Varnak's summer home at Minong, Wisconsin, to test his fishing skill the first time in his life, his friends were prepared for another round of stories about the big ones that got away.

They were unprepared for the three big fish "in the flesh" they were permitted to view on Leo's return. Leo had purchased $20 worth of casting equipment for the trip, and on the third cast reeled in his first 20" Northern pike. Another 20" inch followed, plus an 18" Wall-eyed pike.

There are fish in Flesch's lake

That fact was proven without question when four Palatine fishermen recently returned after spending four days at Pine-haven on Blackwater Lake at Pine River, Minn. The resort is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flesch, formerly of Palatine.

The lucky fishermen, or shall we say, competent fishermen, were Chas. Gaare, Rev. W. C.
Koester, Martin Platt and Harry Tharp. The combination of Supervisors of Public Works, grave digger, undertaker and preacher must have awed the fish. The finny creatures had the most respect, however, for "Charley" who, in the record time of ten minutes, landed a 24 pound, 42 inch Great Northern, on opening day.

All of the fishermen report catching their limit—and having a great time.

Statewide amateur golf at Danville

The 18th annual Illinois state amateur golf championship for the Louis L. Emmerson trophy will be played at Danville Country club (Danville, Ill.), July 7 through 11, sponsored by the Chicago District Golf Association. Wednesday and Thursday (July 7 and 8) will see a 36 hole qualifying round, 18 holes each day, for thirty-two places in the championship flight. There will also be a first and second flight.
Match play will begin Friday (July 9) and continue through the 36 hole finals Sunday (July 11).

clude: David Logan, Jr., Barrington, and Stanley Arendt, Jr.,

Citation, Coaltown may be running over 3 day period

Arlington Park will present
two stakes this week end, drawing horses from quite a variety of classifications. Three year olds will perform in the $20,000 Skokie, a six furlong dash, on Thursday; and fillies and mares, three years old and up, will take the track on Saturday for the $25,000 Modesty. Stakes also at three-quarters of a mile.

The Modesty will feature the first portion of the July 3-July 5 weekend. It will be followed on Monday the 5th with the $50,000 Stars and Stripes handicap for three year olds and up at the mile and an eighth. Thus within a period of five racing days from Wednesday to Monday, Arlington Park's regular patrons may expect to see the majority of the top horses in nearly every division, which are stabled on the grounds.

CITATION, Calumet Farm's year old champion, and his colorful stablemate, Coaltown, are among the nominees for the Skokie. Ben Jones and Jimmy Jones may elect to start Citation in this event or they may hold off until the Dick Welles stakes at a mile on July 21 in pointing their star performer for the classic on July 31. The classic is expected to gross in the neighborhood of $95,000.

The Joneses may choose to send Coaltown out alone in the Skokie. They are likely to run him in as many late closing three year old stakes as they can inasmuch as he was not nominated for the classic or the American Derby, which closed last November.

There are seven other classic candidates among the Skokie
nominees — Grandpere, Piet, Beau Dandy, Billings, Papa Redbird, Enforcer and Shy Guy.

AMONG Modesty's prominent nominees are Calumet Farm's Bewitch, Whirl Some and In The Pink. Bewitch gave a surprisingly disappointing performance while finishing fifth in the Princess Doreen stakes last Wednesday. The winner of that race, Miss Mommy, and the other three who finished ahead of Be-witch, are all nominated for the Modesty, so the Calumet filly will have a chance to get even.

Calumet has named Fervent, Faultless, Citation and Armed for the Stars and Stripes. It's a foregone conclusion that Armed will not be ready, but any or all of the others might go. Knuck-down, Better Self, Colossal, Delegate, Mighty Story, Star Reward, Eternal Reward and Stud Poker are also among the 16 nominees for the Stars and Stripes. All but Knockdown and Better Self are now on the grounds.

FIRST WEEK of Arlington Park meeting saw good crowds and a substantial mutuel play, despite rainy weather during the week.

The Equipoise mile Saturday brought out a fine field, and created a mighty battle between Calumet farm's Fervent and John March's game and speedy Mighty Story.

After a titanic stretch battle, Fervent got the decision of a

New friends are being made daily for Arlington Park as the big crowds, many of them new patrons, enjoy the commodious accommodations and beautiful scenery at Arlington, one of the most beautiful race courses in the land.

Big car racing at Aurora July 4

Top stars of the nation's speedways will resume their battle for national dirt track honors when big car racing makes its second bow of the year on the fast Aurora Downs oval near Aurora the afternoon of July 4.

A field of at least 25 cars is expected for the seven-race program by Edwin T. Dygert, manager of the Downs, sponsor of the event.

That fast field is expected to be headed by such nationally-famous drivers as Deb Snyder, Kent, Ohio, daredevil; Bobby Grim, Indianapolis youth; George Binnie, last year's mid-south midget driving champion who graduated to the big cars this year; Frank Luptow, of Detroit; Fritz Tegetmeier, of Elgin, Ill.; Speed Funderburk, 1947 Florida champion; Joe Baker, Indianapolis; Al Fleming, Richmond, Va., and many others.

The seven-event, spring-type program will get underway with time trials at 1 p. m. The first competitive event is scheduled for 2:30. Reserved seat tickets now are on sale at Walgreens in Aurora at $2.50. General admission seats will be $1.50 plus tax.

BY GERALD McELROY

Am out on my folks' farm in Iowa and no column as such will be ready for this week. Some observations during the week out here might be of interest. For one thing I never have seen crops look better than they do this year in this area. Last year corn looked good in July but a span of 37 days without rain through August cut the yield. The year before a destructive hail storm in August took half the crop.
So much for farming and its hazards. Farmers are making money these days but it is an occupation that always has and always will be a gamble all the way.

My home town has just constructed a new gymnasium with regulation playing floor, a stage on one side and seating capacity for 1,000. Costing them about 50,000 which seemed cheap in comparison with Chicago area costs. The home town of 450 population always has been good in basketball. Last two seasons they were short one game of getting into the state tournament.

I asked the principal, a college friend of mine, whether they would hold a holiday tournament in the new gym. He stated that Christmas holiday tournaments were not at all common out here but that a lot of counties and conferences had what they call basketball jamborees. In an eight team league they all get together early in the season and on a Friday night four of the teams played the other four as one long game, each team taking care of 16 minutes of play for their group. Sounds like a good idea for a preview for fans and coaches of the material each school has at the opening of the season.

AND SPEAKING of music festivals, Mason City, Iowa, put on the 10th annual North Iowa Band Festival Tuesday with 52 high school bands plus numerous floats included in a big parade
as the opening event. Each school had a queen and selection of Miss North Iowa from this group was one of the festival features. Bands and expenses for all those meals and queens were financed by the Chamber of Commerce.

Imagine my surprise soon after arriving here to see a photograph in the Mason City paper of some prominent Chicago and Palatine people, the Arthur Mc-Intosh family, both senior and junior, who were visiting at Clear Lake.

Arlington Jr. Legion team suffers 2-1 loss to Franklin Park

Arlington Heights opened its 1948 Junior American Legion baseball schedule Saturday afternoon at the village park and was promptly handed a 2 to 1 defeat by Franklin Park.

The visitors scored both their runs in the top half of the first inning. After the lead-off man, A. Phillips, reached first on a walk, Chuck Johnson, Arlington pitcher, sent the next two men down on strikeouts. Gohl was hit by a pitched ball, and the two runners advanced when Wiest, Arlington catcher, overthrew first base trying to pick the runner off. The runners then scored on a base hit by Lannoire. That was the end of the scoring for Franklin Park but the two run lead was just a little more than the locals could overcome.

ARLINGTON scored their lone tally in the fifth. After Don Kelper walked, he advanced to second on a single by Wiest. After both runners then advanced to second and third on an error.
Kelper slid home safely when Jim Schwartz hit a ground ball to the infield. Schwartz was safe on a fielder's choice but Spera put out the fire by striking out Thill.

Spera struckout five and allowed only two Arlington hits.
Although Johnson was tabbed for the loss he allowed only three hits and struck out seven batters. The local Legion nine, representing the Merle Guild Post, improved greatly as the game went along, and the infield turned in three snappy

Sportsman's field day at Springfield

The final plans for the Sportsman's Field Day to be held July 4 in Springfield are now complete with a fine program for sportsmen ready to start with the 10:00 a. m. opening gun.

Events of the day include demonstrations of casting, shooting, retrieving, archery, sling shot, and other outdoor sports. Plenty of participating sports are also scheduled so that visitors may try their hand at trap shooting, casting, or other favorite sports.

Fish will be the predominant item on the menu for the noon lunch. Early reports indicate a large crowd of sportsmen with their families will be on hand.

Prospects for a favorable 1948 wild duck hatch in the famed Canadian prairie provinces, with a substantial increase in breeding stock over last year, are now indicated by reports from Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Ducks Unlimited reports. Outstanding surface water conditions in this vast range have accounted for the prevalent excellent nesting situation, the international waterfowl restoration agency declares. Superior water conditions, in fact, are more general over the whole territory than for many years and seldom, if ever before, observers assert, have nesting wild ducks started a season with so much water at their disposal.

A substantial increase in the duck population as compared to last year is reported out of southwestern Manitoba by DU observers following a 600 mile survey. A greater mallard population is a particularly bright spot in the picture, with canvassbacks, redheads, scaup, ruddies and gadwalls also showing increases. First reports from Alberta, in the east-central sector, indicate an extraordinary increase in redheads. This species is exceeded in abundance there only by mallards and lesser scaup. First reports from Saskatchewan (southeastern) indicate a substantially good breeding stock in that area.

Flood conditions were widespread in all three provinces when the ducks arrived on spring migration, observers point out, and consequent nesting on high ground means little or no loss from flooding. There are many thousands of acres, particularly in Saskatchewan and Alberta, where fields will remain flooded long enough for the hatch to get off. This factor, DU Naturalists Cartwright declares, will offset, to some extent at least, losses from agricultural activities.

Increase Lombard liquor licenses

Lombard taverns will henceforth pay an annual license fee advanced from $400 to $750 and stores selling liquor for sale off the premises will pay $300 annually instead of the previous $100, under the terms of a revised village ordinance adopted last week.

Discharged

From Augusta, Georgia, comes word from Howard Koeppen of Wheeling.

Just a few lines to let you know I will be getting my discharge from the army July 1 at Augusta, Ga. I hope to be home in Wheeling shortly after.

Fred Kraus and I enlisted January 21, 1947, and we've been together ever since. We had basic at Ft. Knox, Ky. After receiving orders to go to Japan, we were shipped to Oliver General hospital in Georgia instead.

I have been a night supervisor of medical wards down here. We have had good meals, with civilians waiting on us. It's just about like civilian life.

Weather has been hot here, the temperature running from 100 to 111 degrees. There has been absolutely no breeze, like there always is in Wheeling.

I enjoyed receiving the Cook County Herald with all its news of Wheeling. Keep up the good work.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

On Mother's Day, the radio, press and pulpit all sing and tell beautiful, wonderful things about how much Mother means to all Mankind.

Now I am not one to deny this. I think all mothers are fine, really I do. But I think also that not enough attention is paid to father on Father's Day.

Oh yes, he makes the radio broadcast, in heart wringing appeals to the public to fill father's long felt need for a new pair of slippers, bath robe, or a carton of Bla Bla cigarettes. He makes the advertisements in all the newspapers, too, in stirring, heart appealing advertisements which show how deeply Father yearns for the new Humpty Dump Ball Point Pen and Pencil Set, or how young he would feel wearing one of the new, hand painted neck ties. Never, however, does any advertiser even remotely suggest who will pay the bills!

Believe me, mothers deserve all the praise they get—I am not of a jealous nature. Yet it seems to me that fathers are the great, underprivileged class. They sweat and toil year in and out to support their families in luxury and ease, while they sacrifice their freedom to feed, cloth and educate posterity.

How often we hear ministers and orators rave about the Great Mother Heart; but who among them ever speak of the Great Father Heart? Just what has a Mother Heart got that a Father Heart doesn't have?

Think of the poor, uncomplaining, brow beaten, henpecked husbands, haunted from dawn until dark by fear of insecurity, teased for fur coats and jewelry, roller skates and bicycles, run over by children, striving manfully to be He Men through it all!

No, we fathers do not envy mothers their place in the sun. They are all heroines and angels, all of them, bless their great mother hearts!

But just the same, I stand for more celebrating, more honor for fathers on Father's Day. Perhaps a nice quiet parade, with three or four bands let by forty or fifty assorted feminine bandmasters, plus the fire department, Legionnaires, boy scouts, girl scouts, police department, Sunday school classes, and probably a large float with a King Father dressed in a wand, a robe and

State says no to lights, but woman still killed by car

As fate would have it, no sooner had the State Highway Department declared, following a traffic count, that the intersection of Touhy ave. and Mannheim rd. did not warrant traffic lights, than a tragic accident occurred claiming the life of a 75-year old Park Ridge woman and seriously injuring her sister. Five others were also hurt.

Des Plaines had requested traffic lights there for some time and only a few weeks ago a letter was received from the Highway Department stating that "during an average six hour period 490 vehicles entered the intersection." It went on to state that "accident reports here showed that most wrecks were due to motorist's disobedience of stop signs."

Former King Peter visits Libertyville

A king without an empire visited in Lake county the greater part of Sunday—the first time it is believed, royalty in the fresh "broke bread" with residents of the county.

Although forced into exile by the Marshal Tito communists, former King Peter II of Yugoslavia remains "king" in the eyes of his former subjects, and as such he was welcomed to the Serb monastery of St. Sava, north of Libertyville. More than 100 natives of Serbia from Libertyville, Chicago, Waukegan, and other cities greeted the former monarch who participated in a communion service in the morning, was guest of honor at dinner and then spoke briefly.

King Peter is 25 years old.

UNITED

In 1776 Congress debated for three days before it reached unanimous agreement on July 4, about the Declaration of Independence. They differed politically and in religion; yet they found Union in the Freedom spirit of the Declaration.

Freedom to speak without fear — worship God as we see fit — express our views of right and wrong — choose those who govern us.

United Motor Coach safety contest winners entertained by company

Last Monday, June 21, four Motor Coach company employees and their wives were entertained at a theater and dinner party by the company as a reward for their having won the bi-monthly safety contest just recently completed. Winning team was the "Eager Beavers."

Members of the winning safety team were: Peter Mickus, Warren Garland, Raymond Woss, Roy Winkelman, John Sedor and Leonard Maloney. They saw the play "Show Boat" and then went to Old Heidelberg for dinner.

These safety contests are a regular part of the company's policy for improving safety for its passengers. The safety record of the United Motor Coach company has been remarkable the past 25 years of operation.

Home building in Public Service area at new high

Home building in 71 suburban communities served by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois continued to show outstanding gains in May, 1948, compared with the same month a year ago, it was reported today by the utility.

Permits issued for new homes in the 71 suburbs during May had a total value of $8,204,505 compared with $5,815,662 in May, 1947, a gain of $2,388,843, or 41%. The number of individual permits in May, 1948, also showed a substantial gain, reaching a total of 712 compared with 616 a year earlier. The May, 1948 figures for the 71 suburbs topped the City of Chicago total by nearly $3,500,000.

The 71 suburban communities reporting were in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, and Will counties.

IN ADDITION to the home building total, the same 71 communities reported May, 1948, permits for commercial, industrial, and other non-home structures totalling $5,087,973, bringing the total for building of all types to $13,292,478. In May, 1947, the all-building figure was $12,914,654.

In the home building field, Westchester led the list for May, 1948, with 53 permits totalling $336,700. Skokie was second with 49 permits but its dollar value was $679,900, more than $143,000 greater than the Westchester total. Highland Park, with only 26 permits but with a value of $645,400, also topped the Westchester total. Elmwood Park ranked third with 35 permits and fourth in dollar value with a total of $344,300.

Orv Schaeffer wins honor at Boys' State

Orville Schaeffer, the local representative to Premier Boys State, will speak at a meeting of the Arlington Heights Legion Post Tuesday, July 6, at 7:30 p. m. He will tell of his experiences at Premier Boys State and the effect and impressions of the program.

Orville made an outstanding record at Premier Boys State, having won the primary election for Lieutenant Governor of the state. He was beaten in the general election but that did not prevent him from receiving the award for the outstanding leader during the 13th Annual Session. Orv Schaeffer was also very active in sports at PBS participating in volleyball and basketball competition. He also was a member of the Boys State daily newspaper.

At Arlington, Orville is an honor student and a member of the National Honor Society. He is a member of the A club and has letters in track, basketball, and baseball. He was also president of the junior class at A. H. T. H. S.

Premier Boys State is a meeting of one week's duration during which the outstanding boys from all over the state of Illinois participate in an experiment in functional government. They learn how to live with one another according to the principles and ideals that is America. They listen to lectures by outstanding men in the fields of constitutional law, enforcement officers, election judges, and civil service. They attend classes that teach them the practical workings of our state government. Further, they are exposed to politics through their own elections and are instilled with the desire to help to eliminate corrupt practices in politics from our governmental system.

Premier Boys State is the original program of teaching functional citizenship. This program has now spread to 42 states and Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, and the Philippine Islands.

During the two years Arlington has sent representatives it has been well represented as Ronald Weigand was Assistant Secretary of State and Bill North was elected Attorney General and selected as the model citizen in addition to being editor of the newspaper. This year Orville Schaeffer has continued the excellent calibre by his superb try for the Lieutenant Governorship and his winning of the Good Sportsmanship Award.

July 15 session to foretell NW side growth

The northwest suburban area of metropolitan Chicago will grow faster than any other part, it is revealed by a housing market analysis made under the direction of the Cook County Housing Authority.

Real Estate Research Corporation of Chicago was assigned to make the study for the Authority, which sought to determine trends in the construction of new housing in the various localities northwest of the city.

James C. Downs, Jr., president of Real Estate Research Corporation, will present detailed findings in the market analysis on July 15 to an area-wide meeting in the Lincoln School in Park Ridge. The Park Ridge Chamber of Commerce is arranging the meeting with the cooperation of the Cook County Housing Authority and the Research Corporation. Municipal and other public officials and builders, real estate brokers and business leaders are being invited to attend.

FOREWARNED of the rapid growth, Downs says, it is important that the centers of new building be located beforehand with all possible exactitude within the general area in order that planning in each community may be properly oriented. While the direction of the new building now and in the future indicates desirable healthy growth, he said, it presents a challenge in effective planning that must be met if the character of the northwest communities is to be maintained.

1,000 pilots learn to fly University of Illinois

More than 1,000 pilots—15 of them women—have been trained at the University of Illinois since the University's Institute of Aeronautics began operations in 1946.

Students in flight training have been 97 per cent veterans—men and women entering special fields in aviation, and planning to fly as industrialists, farm, teachers, salesmen, and geologists. Others have felt the need for direct flying experience because of its over-all importance in the Air Age.

Launched as a pioneering venture in the field of aviation education, the U. of I. Institute under the direction of Dr. Leslie A. Bryan is recognized today as the leading organization of its kind.

Reflecting the Institute's amazing record of achievement since May 1946, is the fact that flight courses have been completed successfully by 95 per cent of the total enrollment. In 1947, there was a daily average of 500 take-offs and landings, with 18 of the University's fleet of 32 planes being used in student training. In fields of research related to aviation, 20 of the University's colleges and departments now are cooperating with the Institute.

Utility of the University's 762-acre airport is evidenced in the huge hangar with its well-equipped maintenance and repair shop and classrooms, in 16,000 square feet of new ramp space, in field lighting facilities, obtained through a direct state grant, and in the erection of 20 nested T-hangers for the housing of privately-owned planes.

Dozen interested in quarter million Libertyville sewer

Only a dozen persons were interested enough in a quarter million dollar sewer project for Libertyville to attend a public hearing Tuesday night in Village hall. The hearing had been called by the Village board and was given advanced publicity.

As the result of the hearing it is believed that the Village board will have prepared plans and specifications so that contractors can furnish bids.

Skunks rate own headline in Glenview

Last Friday night three baby skunks appeared mysteriously at the bottom of a six foot deep window well at the side of the Harold Getzoff home in Glenview. Allen Glisch, of the Animal Welfare league in Chicago, responding to an SOS from the Getzoff home, took the animals away. Then on Saturday morning, there were six more baby skunks in the same window well. There was another call for Glisch, who transported the six baby skunks to a shelter.

Brick pavement planned for Palatine

The proposition to improve streets in the business part of our village has found expression in a petition to the Board of Local Improvements, asking for action.

The board estimated the cost of work for four blocks at $10,472.00, to be paid for by special assessments on property benefited thereby, and levied in ten annual installments.

At a public hearing held Wednesday night at Palatine village hall, it was learned a foundation of six inches of gravel would be spread on the streets, after grading same, followed by a thorough rolling by steam roller into a compact surface.

It will then be covered with two inches of sand, over which will be laid vitrified brick with cement grout in the interstices. The streets will have a crown in the center, gradually sloping to the sides ten feet from the sidewalk.

At the meeting, the merits of brick and macadam were discussed, but it was evident the meeting favored brick.

Honor Palatine girl at shower party

Misses Grace Van Horn and Elsie and Cassie Gainer were hostesses at a shower for Winnie Sawyer Saturday afternoon at the residence of the former.

Fourteen young ladies were present and presented the bride-to-be with a half dozen sterling silver tea spoons as a token of their regard. The afternoon passed quickly with games, etc., until 5:30 p. m. Then a progressive lunch of 5 courses was announced, and the food on each table harmonized in colors with the decorations of the same. It was a jolly lot of young ladies who did justice to the five courses, from table No. 1 decorated in white with scalloped potatoes, milk and sandwiches, to No. 5, a pink table with ice cream and cake.

Tales

BY T. C. HART

RAINS AT LAST

Rains that really soaked down to crop roots have helped the crop outlook in this area a great deal. Some corn that had not sprouted will at least get a chance to grow, and some corn fields will get a big boost to that knee-high standard by July 4.

Louise Freise on Northwest highway said he doubted the rain would help his unsprouted corn much, but that rain would "make the field look better, anyway." Well, Louie got his rain and we wouldn't be surprised if that slow corn was on the way by now.

The potato crop has looked good all the time, but the rains are sure to help the "spuds" as well as other garden crops. Gardeners, by the way, report there are few potato bugs this year, which reminds us of the bugless year of 1946.

STOP LIGHTS

We overheard some people discussing stop lights that might be installed along Northwest highway at Cary and Fox River Grove. They were wondering when Palatine would get some at Northwest highway and Chicago avenue.

What was Palatine's new safety council doing about the matter, they wondered. We pass that question on to the safety council for an answer.

FISHING FEVER

We've been wondering how the current fishing epidemic caught on this year, and we've decided that an American airlines calendar depicting a fisherman out in the middle of a stream and against a background of deep, fine woods did the trick.

That picture was enough to call up the nostalgic memories of any outdoor fan and probably was responsible for starting all those fishermen on their way to the woods this spring.

OVER THE HILL

The longest days of the season have come and gone, and we are once more on the down grade towards fall.

As one fellow said, "It won't be long now before the wind will be blowing over the stubble and we'll be building fires again."

Well, we haven't let those fires go out yet this summer for any great length of time up to a week or ten days ago, so let's hope for one of those long, warm falls to make up for the outlandish spring we had following that tough winter.

PALATINE PLAN

A new plan commission is being organized in Palatine, and will be appointed after a series of conferences of interested persons and civic groups. A list of candidates will be presented to the mayor and village board, who will select the new commission.

The new group will take the place of one disrupted by the war years. With the fast-growing community facing new problems, a plan commission which will devote some time and thought to Palatine's future can really do a great job for the community.

We believe the new plan commission will be that kind of group.

RED WING GAMES

Always something new when those Red Wings play ball. At a recent game we saw more stunts that are seldom seen at ball games.

For one thing, an umpire changed his decision after calling a strike, and after a howl went up, changed it to a ball.

Then the field umpire dusted off the rubber in the pitcher's mound at almost every inning, just as the plate umpire dusts off the plate.

To climax the unusual performances, George Schaefer, who was playing right field that day instead of pitching, fanned out with the bases full. You don't see old George doing that stunt very often; he's always been a mighty dangerous hitter, especially with men on bases, and to see him fan with the bases loaded really put the game into the most unusual class.

Well, anything can and usually does happen at those Red Wing games, so if you want to see the unexpected in base ball, see one of their games.

A GOOD PLACE TO DIE

When some boys discussed bringing industry to Palatine, an alderman remarked that in the old days Palatine had been the home of many retired farmers who moved to town for a nice, quiet existence and a "good place to die."

Well, if a town is a good place to live, a nice, quiet, friendly neighborhood town with good schools, good churches and good people, why wouldn't it be the ideal place to die?

Such is Palatine, the real home town.

NEW LOOK

The new look is everywhere. The funniest example of it was a woman in a new look gown running for a street car, and it was really some sight. She wasn't making half the speed one of the gals in an old look dress could have made.

You see the new look in the stores, restaurants, on the street, and at the races. Some look mighty neat and attractive, but others look like the devil. Some of the good ladies at the track show wonderful taste in their new look make-up, but others wear skirts that almost sweep up the discarded mutual tickets on the floor of the clubhouse.

OLD FRANK

A familiar figure is missing from the race tracks this summer and a familiar voice heard over American race tracks for more than fifty years is stilled forever.

"Old Frank," as he was known to race fans, jockeys, trainers and owners all over the land, was a hustler and a Barker. He sold the New York Press, Collier's Eye and the scratch sheets at various times in his more than half a century around the tracks.

His shrill, piercing voice could be heard from one end of a big racing plant to the other as he called his wares. He handed out many good tips to friends, and many that weren't good, but he had a host of friends among race followers.

As an autumn sideline, he took orders for Christmas cards. The last time we saw him last fall, he was packing up a big bundle of cards a prominent trainer wanted to send his mother in Idaho.

For several years he had been suffering from asthma, and it was almost impossible for him to keep going, but somehow he kept on. The first day of the current season at Arlington we didn't hear it.

We hunted up "Shorty," another racing sheet salesman, and asked about Old Frank.

"He died a month ago at his sister's home," replied Shorty, as tears came to his eyes. Those two had been friends for years on the race tracks of the country.

"Old Frank is gone. No more will be looking up old friends to give them a good tip. The final bugle has called him to the post for the last race. May there be only green pastures and winners in the land to which he's gone."

weeks, probably due to increased business brought by the track. The horse people, many of whom come to town to trade and eat, have helped the business of the armless bandits. The take for the last three weeks was $121.92, $125.95 and $130.88.

We wandered one day to Arlington Heights one day and they seem to be doing fine with one-half parking. Folks were getting a chance to trade, and no one was grabbing pennies and nickels while they were at it.

If Arlington can make a parking ordinance stick, why can't Palatine?

LIKES PAPER

Received a letter from my wife today. She has gone to New York, her native town for a month's vacation.

Maybe it brings Mt. Prospect to New York, but I thought you might be interested to know how one of your readers values the Mt. Prospect Herald.

Your weekly treat recipe

The tang and spice of those delicately flavored vegetables in today's recipe is a sure-fire rule for making it tantalizing. It makes an enticing salad mold for those hot summer days.

Vegetable Salad Mold

1 pkg. lemon jell
2 tbsps. Wilson B. V.
1 cup hot water
1 cup soured cream
1/4 cup vinegar
1/2 cup thinly sliced radishes
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup green pepper strips
1/4 cup onions, finely chopped
1/2 cup diced cucumbers
1/2 tsp. salt
1/8 tsp. cayenne

Method: Dissolve jell and B V in hot water. Chill until slightly thickened. Combine remaining ingredients and add to jell. Mix well. Pour into individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. Yield: 6 servings.

Note: Lightly oil inside of molds with salad oil so the salad will unmold easily.

IN DEFENSE

We have raised two daughters to young womanhood in Arlington Heights. We are proud of them.

We are sure that other parents in Arlington Heights feel the same way about their children.

When a girl or boy has reached the age of 18 or 19 they should know the difference between right and wrong. They should be trusted with other boys and girls of that age. If they do not and cannot then the parents have done a poor job. No amount of chaperonage will keep them out of trouble.

Our youngest daughter attended and graduated from Central YMCA high school. This school, in common with other good schools, recognizes no barriers of race or creed. In her class were several well behaved, self respecting negro girls and boys. These young folks attended the same school dances, they were in the same school plays, they attended the same lectures.

After graduation the members of this class had a final get-together. This was at the invitation of my daughter. After checking with the Legion, to be sure that the Legion would raise no objection to colored guests, the hall was hired. (A few colored boys did fight in the war.)

In all decency how could these young colored folks who had worked so hard, along with their classmates, to make the class plays successful, who had shared the trials and tribulations of their classmates for four years, be excluded?

All invited guests knew that these young people would be there.

Unfortunately, several young people from the Heights who were not invited crashed the party and attempted to make trouble. Judging from the recent unsigned letters in this paper, injudicious and unwarranted gossip has been making mountains out of mole hills.

After the party the Legion caretaker reported that the hall had been left in very good condition and all evidence pointed to a very orderly party.

We feel that the teen agers are being undeservedly criticized because of the actions of a few whose parents have been unable to make them aware of their obligations to society.

Ninety-nine and nine-tenths percent of the young people in the Heights are good kids. They know right from wrong and can be trusted together.

It is unfortunate, but true, that young people just out of high school must go elsewhere to dance, roller skate or bowl. During the winters the alleys are seldom open to other than leagues.

When our daughter was hurt the young people rallied to our help. They watched and entertained while we rested or hospitalized. They did dishes, swept floors, ran errands. Some of these boys and girls we knew. Some even my daughter did not know. We are grateful to these young folks.

In our opinion the majority of the youth of Arlington Heights are a wonderful group of people. May we have many generations like them.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Hines
234 So. Dunton Ave.

Dividend payments on GI insurance not likely for a year

Dividend payments to holders of GI insurance policies are not likely for at least a full year, Homer G. Bradney, administrator of the Illinois Veterans Commission, said today.

It is estimated by government officials, Bradney pointed out, that the one year delay is necessary to prepare for the paper work involved in paying dividends to millions of policyholders.

Dividends will be paid on all, except a very few contracts, whether lapsed or still in effect. The amount of each dividend will be determined by the amount of insurance carried, the period it was in force and the age of the insured.

Payments will be made on both term and converted insurance regardless of whether the insurance has been surrendered for cash value or loans. Beneficiaries will also receive dividends based on the amount of premiums paid by the insured prior to his or her death.

Bradney urged veterans not to write to federal officials for information because such inquiries will only further delay the administrative duties of the personnel. Instead, he said, veterans who seek information about insurance dividends should contact the nearest office of the Illinois Veterans Commission.

In Cook county the Commission office is located at 41 So. Prospect ave. in Park Ridge.

TAX FACTS

By George E. Mahlin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers Federation of Illinois

For Chambers of Commerce who want to see new businesses and industries started in their towns.

For everyone who is apprehensive at the continued expansion of our federal government, and who is beginning to wonder whether advocates of socialism, who have been repudiated at the polls at election after election, may not be laughing up their sleeves at the direction in which our government is heading.

This is a story of what might have been—a story of a business that never started, of taxes never paid, of jobs that never materialized. This story has been adapted by the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois from an article in the Tinley Park Times.

Ten men considered organizing a corporation to construct and operate a factory to make prefabricated houses. The program called for an investment of $100,000 each to form a million dollar corporation. Each of the 10 men had a personal net income of $25,000 per year. The factory would give employment to 200 men, which would mean about 200 more families for that city.

The proposition looked good. These men estimated $100,000 in profits to the corporation each year, or a 10% return on their investment, which would warrant taking a risk. But taxes had to be taken into consideration—local, state, and federal taxes. An investigation was made and the prospective investors learned that state and local taxes would amount to $20,000 per year, reducing the profits to $80,000. Federal corporation taxes of 38% on the $80,000 would amount to around $30,000, which would leave somewhat less than $50,000 net after taxes. Since the prospective investors had planned to set aside $10,000 each year out of profits as a reserve fund for future needs, there would only be about $40,000 left for distribution in dividends, which would give each of the 10 investors about a $4,000 dividend.

But Uncle Sam also taxes dividends received by individuals—double taxation since this money had also been taxed as a corporation profit. Since each of the ten stockholders had a $25,000 net income, the $4,000 dividend would raise this to $29,000 and he would actually have to pay out of the $4,000 dividend something like $2,400—leaving each stockholder only $1,600 net upon his $100,000 investment. After taking all the risks and doing all the worrying, he would get a return of less than 2% net. He can get at least that much return through investment in government bonds with no risk and no worry.

Needless to say, the corporation was not organized, the city did not get the factory and the additional taxes, and 200 men were not provided with jobs.

But, the government in Washington decides that prefabricated houses are necessary to meet the housing shortage. Accordingly, government—which by its tax policy has made it unprofitable for capital to take the risk—creates a bureau to manufacture prefabricated houses at a greater cost than the private enterprise. This of course means that the government will need still more money, still higher taxes—and so the expansion of government continues and the incentive for private enterprise to start new business and industry is further reduced.

Injurious to Chicks

If the brooder house is given a heavy spraying with creosote or a coal tar disinfectant, the chicks should not be placed in the house for several days. The strong fumes are injurious to chicks.

Vacations Doctor Ward's Notebook

Door County, Wisconsin. One wonders, while lying in the warming sun and contemplating a blue-gray expanse of the Bay, how people remain sane living in cities. Not until absolute quiet descends on you do the clatter, the smell, and the rush of urban life become a reality—to urbanites the city and its effects are only subconsciously felt.

A PHILOSOPHICAL MOOD always comes over me when I see a post mortem examination of the lungs. You can tell the city people from the farmers—a peculiar black and white zebra striping corresponding to the outline of the ribs is the result of daily inhalation of the smoke and soot of city air. One speculates, somewhat uneasily, on less, conspicuous evidence of the devastating effects of a city's pollution stored away in brain, nerves, or heart.

VACATION TIME offers an opportunity to correct some of these deleterious effects before they become irreversible; the straining heart and rising blood pressure return to normal, an incipient ulcer heals, jangled nerves are soothed. I'm not talking about some one about to have a nervous breakdown. I mean every person reading this article. The man who told me the other day, rather proudly, that he hadn't had a vacation in five years is a fool. And his folly will take its toll, perhaps not next year, but eventually. It is a fundamental law of nature that you can't cheat your body and get away with it for long.

A COMPLETE CHANGE is a prerequisite for a satisfactory vacation—change and freedom from the usual routine and responsibilities. Men should get away from business homework. Mothers need to leave dishes, cooking, house cleaning, and the children. And children are entitled to a rest from their parents. There is no question but that a good two weeks complete change works miracles—homes are happier, the routine loses its monotony, and life in general seems more worth living.

AT LEAST TWO SUCCESSIVE WEEKS should be available, and many companies are slowly realizing this is not enough for people under the constant nervous strain of heavy responsibility. The practice, begun during the war, of staggering vacations throughout the year is a good one, and many people are finding winter vacations more enjoyable than summer ones. The phenomenal rise in popularity of such resorts as Sun Valley, Idaho attests the fact that you don't have to be a wealthy executive to take a winter trip.

IN THE PAST doctors have been poor practitioners of their preachings. The gradual growth of clinics and group practice, however, makes it possible for doctors to help each other leave for reasonable lengths of time. A good vacation pays off for both doctor and patient—the responsibilities of practicing medicine are greater than anyone, other than a doctor's wife, would believe. A strained, tired, harassed M. D. cannot possibly make the right decision forty times a day, day after day, night after night, without an occasional chance to recuperate.

IF IT WERE IN MY POWER, everyone would have at least a three week paid vacation, away from home and responsibilities, during a different season each year. This program, plus occasional free week-ends, would so cut down on the number of patients with high blood pressure, irritable colons, ulcers, nervous stomach, behavior problems, shot nerves, tobacco habit, and unhappy marriages that practices would fall nearly to zero and physicians could lounge in the sun and study the patterns in the water nine months of every twelve.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Can I appeal for review of discharge?
Answer: Yes. Within 15 years after discharge.

Question: I am going to continue my schooling through the summer and I don't want my subsistence allowance to be interrupted. Do I notify the Veterans Administration of this?
Answer: Yes—you should report this fact to your Veterans Administration Training officer as soon as possible. Payments may be discontinued at the end of the current term unless such notice is received.

Question: Is there a law stating that veterans are to be given preference in Federal employment?
Answer: Yes. The Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 provides that preference shall be given to veterans "in certification for appointment, in appointment, in reinstatement, in reemployment, and in retention in civilian positions," permanent or temporary, in the executive branch of the Federal Government and in the government of the District of Columbia, subject to certain conditions.

Question: What is the maximum loan value of my National Life Insurance Policy?
Answer: Loan cannot exceed 94 percent of cash value of policy.

Gems of thought

FREEDOM THROUGH GOVERNMENT

Men well governed should seek after no other liberty, for there can be no greater liberty than a good government.

—Sir Walter Raleigh

Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. God made man free.

—Mary Baker Eddy

The very idea of the power and right of the people to establish government presupposes the duty of every individual to obey the established government.

—Washington

We must accept the disciplines of democracy as well as its freedoms. Discipline from without flourishes when discipline from within grows weak.

—Harry Woodburn Chase

Patriotism is a blind and irrational impulse unless it is founded on a knowledge of the blessings we are called to secure and the privileges we proposed to defend.

—Robert Hall

Only free people can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end, and prefer the interest of mankind to any narrow interest of their own.

—Woodrow Wilson

Bits o' business

The middle income for all U. S. families rose to $2,920 during 1947, up $320 from 1946, according to the Federal Reserve Board. This means that half of the 42 million families in the country had incomes higher than $2,920, half had lower. For every 100 families in the country in 1947, 21 had incomes above $5,000 and eight of this group above $7,500. In the same bracket of 100, however, 13 families had incomes below $1,000 and another 18 had earnings between $1,000 and $2,000. . . . To spur sales of electrical appliances, Consolidated Edison Co. of New York, Inc. is conducting for the first time a consumer prize contest through its cooperating dealers. Appliances with a retail value of $15,000 will be given away to 500 contestants who best answer 10 factual questions to be distributed by dealers. In announcing the contest, E. F. Jeffe, vice president in charge of sales, said he feared wage rises probably would put a stop to the downward price efforts of industry. . . . U. S. wool consumption is now running at double prewar figures. . . . Balanced lead production and consumption is not yet in sight. The storage battery industry has expanded, but cable manufacturers ed up on its unprecedented demand, but cable manufacturers have increased their's.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it all right for a girl to wear her engagement ring before the engagement has been publicly announced?

A. It would be all right if she is in the privacy of her home, when there are no guests, but she should not wear it in public until the engagement has been announced.

Q. Is it proper to drink consommé from a cup or to use a spoon?

A. The first few sips may be taken with the spoon. One may continue to use the spoon or may lift the cup to the mouth.

Q. Should a man remove his hat in an elevator?

A. Yes, and especially if a woman enters the elevator.

Q. What is the best acknowledgment to an introduction?

A. The simplest and always correct thing to say is, "How do you do." "I am very glad to meet you," or "I am delighted to meet you" may also be used. Never say, "Pleased to meet you."

Q. Is it always necessary to write a note of thanks for a wedding gift received?

A. Under no circumstances should a bride tender her thanks by telephone or in person. A personal note of thanks should be written as promptly as possible.

Q. Should one push his chair back into place after rising from the dinner table?

A. No; but this does not mean that it should be pushed back two or three feet from the table.

Q. When a person helps himself from a service dish which is accompanied by a fork and spoon, which implement is taken in the right hand?

A. The fork is held in the right hand, the spoon in the left.

Q. Who pays for the clothes worn by a bridesmaid at a wedding?

A. With the exception of the flowers she carries, every article of clothing worn by the bridesmaid is paid for by her.

Q. May one correctly leave the table while he is still eating?

A. No. One must have completely finished before arising from the table.

Q. If a wedding is to be a very quiet home affair and only members of the immediate families attend, would it be proper to send wedding announcements?

A. Yes. Announcements are proper, regardless of how simple and quiet the wedding may be.

Farmers meet to gain better hours on Randolph St.

At a hearing before Alderman Sains Committee, Truck Gardeners and Farm Bureau requested a revision of hours on Randolph Street, Wednesday, June 23. The merchants of Randolph Street present along with South Water voiced strong objections to the evening opening of the farmers' market, but seemed to be willing to favor an earlier opening. A committee will be set up to reach an agreement.

Speaking for the farmers was Walter F. Sains, President of the Cook County Truck Gardeners Association; C. A. Hughes, Farm Adviser; Ed Koehler, Des Plaines; Frank Schuler, Elmhurst and Oliver Dorn, Evergreen Park; Chas. B. Schuman, President of the Illinois Agricultural Association and Mr. Lawler, attorney for the Truck Gardeners.

It is believed the meeting will result in somewhat better hours, and a better administered market and perhaps a better located farmer's market. President Chas. B. Schuman, it is understood, gained a promise of an audience with Mayor Kennelly to present the farmers' complaints on restrictions on parking after 8:00 a. m.

Rural youth to tour state

Young farm men and women, members of Rural Youth groups, are planning to acquaint themselves with their own state by a bus tour through eastern, southern, western, and central Illinois during Aug. 19-23.

The tour is being sponsored by the Illinois Agricultural Association under the direction of E. D. Lyon, director of young people's activities for the IAA.

Rural youth members going on the tour will assemble Aug. 18 at the University of Illinois where they will be entertained by a tour of the campus and at a dinner given by the IAA.

The bus tour will start the following day on Aug. 19. Visits will be made to points of historical interest, including Cave-In Rock, Fort Massac, Fort Chartres, Fort Kaskaskia, and the Lincoln shrines at Springfield.

Workshop Is Headquarters For Farm Repair and Maintenance Operations

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

A well equipped workshop is the heart of a modern, mechanized farm. This has become increasingly evident in recent years as the importance of maintenance grows in relation to the greater use of more and more farm machines.

Since most maintenance and repair work can be done in off-seasons, shop activities form a vital link in any efficiently organized, year-round farming program. When emergency repairs are necessary—as is often the case—the shop is the key spot for returning damaged equipment to service promptly. There have been times when a quick, satisfactory at-home repair job has saved an entire crop. Then, too, many farm shops have become part-time hobby centers where farmers enjoy "coddling up" their own versions of time and labor-saving devices, such as buck rakes, manure loaders and feed carts.

Here are two views of unusual farm shop. Note that tools are in wire enclosure which can be locked. Building has ample room for work and storage.

In planning a farm shop, careful consideration should be given to its size and equipment. For convenience and comfort, buildings should be large enough so that machinery can be moved inside, thus protecting workmen from cold and rainy weather. Because repair and maintenance work often must be done at night, shops should be well lighted.

In addition to a good set of hand tools, it is recommended that shops be equipped with such useful and time saving electrical tools as grinders, lathes, table saws and drills. Other electrical equipment suggested for farm use includes battery chargers; soldering irons for making minor metal repairs; form welders for on-the-spot repairs and for altering equipment for special needs, and air compressors, for such purposes as supplying air for truck and tractor tires, for cleaning and lubricating farm machines and for use with equipment used in spraying paint or insecticides.

From the general office of the Bowman Dairy company, comes the fact that dairy farmers in Cook-DuPage county, received $22,678.79 for milk delivered during May. Bowman sends monthly figures to this newspaper as soon as they are compiled, thus giving readers regular reports on milk production

Damp legumes often cause bloated cattle

If you put hungry cattle on damp legume pasture, there is danger that some of the animals will bloat, says Dr. M. E. Mansfield, University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine.

Legumes, such as clover and alfalfa, cause bloat most often when they are wet with dew or rain. The stomach may become bloated to the point that pressure is placed on the lungs and large blood vessels, causing sudden death.

Some animals bloat no matter how carefully they are fed. But

Women have better record than men for farm safety

Are farm women more safety conscious than their husbands? Illinois farm accident figures indicate that they are, according to W. W. Whitlock, safety director of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

While 217 farm people in Illinois lost their lives in farm home and work accidents last year, only 12 were women, IAA safety department surveys show.

Of course, the men folks are exposed to more hazards in field work, but Whitlock says, that national statistics show that the home also is the scene of many accidents.

However, it seems that farm women are doing a better job, so we're going to try and get them to make their husbands safety conscious during National Farm Safety Week, July 25-31, Whitlock says.

Feed Them CRACKLETS

WHAT?

Cracklets are a complete nutritionally balanced ration for chicks.

Cracklets are made by the same formula as Starting Mash.

Cracklets contain a uniform blend of 17 fine quality food ingredients plus minerals.

Cracklets contain all the vitamins and minerals essential to health and growth.

WHY?

Chicks like to pick their food. Cracklets are irregular in size and shape and permit chicks to eat in a natural way.

Chicks will eat more when they can eat naturally — and the more they eat — the faster they grow.

Chicks will waste mash from the hoppers. Cracklets will cut down this waste.

Cracklets are palatable and reduce the tendency toward pastiness in eating.

HOW?

Feed Conkeys Chick Cracklets exactly like you would feed starting mash.

From hatching through the first 6 or 7 weeks, chicks should receive all the Cracklets they can eat. Supply plenty of drinking water. Once or twice a week sprinkle a little chick size grit over the Cracklets.

Through the 7th week the feed should be gradually changed from Cracklets to Conkeys Growing Mash or Conkeys Growing Cracklets.

usually bloat occurs following a sudden change from a dry ration to green pasture. You can help to prevent bloat by feeding dry hay or straw in the morning before the cows are turned out to graze.

Bloat can be treated in several ways: You can help the cow to belch by tying a piece of fork crosswise in her mouth. Just run a small rope around her poll and tie it to each end of the handle.

You may also slow down gas formation in the first stomach by giving a drench of a tablespoon of formalin or kerosene in a quart of water. But be careful that you don't pour the liquid into the lungs. If there is time, a veterinarian should be called for further treatment. Doctor Mansfield says.

McHenry Legion head hit by train

One of the worst tragedies of the year in the McHenry community happened about 3:00 p. m. Friday afternoon when a truck driven by Richard (Dick) Williams, 25-year-old commander of the McHenry Legion post, was struck by a Chicago North Western train on the McCullom Lake crossing south of Ringwood. Williams was so badly injured he died an hour and a half later in the Woodstock hospital.

First 4th of July observed July 8

The first celebration of the Declaration of Independence was not held on July 4. It was held on July 8, 1776—four days after Congress officially adopted the historic document.

According to Mabel Johnson, research editor of the World Book Encyclopedia, patriots who gathered in Philadelphia's Independence Square are credited with originating what has been an annual celebration ever since.

The great crowd heard John Nixon, prominent Philadelphian, read the entire Declaration. He stood on a towering platform erected seven years earlier by the American Philosophical Society for the observation of a rare phenomenon involving the planet Venus.

Bells pealed throughout the day. John Adams' letters mention chimes, possibly those of Christ Church. As the rector of the church was a well-known Royalist, the chimes probably were rung "without benefit of clergy."

Not until July 2 of the following year did it occur to the Philadelphians that the celebration should be repeated on July 4.

A letter written by John Adams to his daughter tells the story of the next July 4, in 1777. Again bells pealed throughout the day. Warships anchored in the river were gaily decorated. Bonfires and fireworks lit the sky in the evening. Candles burned in the windows of nearly every home.

Congress adjourned for the day. The government dignitaries enjoyed a special dinner in a city tavern, with music by a Hessian band captured at Trenton. During the after-dinner toasts, soldiers outside the tavern fired continuous volleys.

According to the World Book editor, this annual celebration of the Fourth of July spread slowly throughout the country. But, even today July 4 is not a national holiday by United States law.

Japan

Private First Class Raymond R. Sorensen of Route 2, Palatine, is now taking a course in beginning Japanese at the Kyoto Education Center, Kyoto, Japan, on every Monday and Wednesday from 7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. This course deals with the basic fundamentals of Japanese language, its pronunciation, and a limited vocabulary.

Operated by the Troop Information and Education Section, Headquarters I Corps, Kyoto, the Kyoto Education Center offers I Corps military and civilian personnel in the Kyoto area an opportunity to prepare themselves for future careers, both in the Army and in civilian life. Courses are offered in such diverse subjects as languages, science, social sciences and trades, in both high school and college levels.

Pfc. Sorensen is assigned to the 4th Engineer Construction Group, a non-divisional unit of I Corps, located in Kyoto. He enlisted in the army on September 5, 1946 at Chicago, and completed Signal Corps basic training at Fort Dix, New Jersey. He has been serving with his present unit since February 13, 1948. Prior to entering the service he graduated from the Palatine high school.

First drowning in 7 years at lake

After seven consecutive years during which time not a drowning happened at the lake, Charles Taylor, 18, of Chicago, lost his life from this cause at Crystal Lake. Taylor resided at 4526 N. Greenview ave., and went with a party of friends to spend the day at the lake. A jury returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning.

Emotions may retard school kids' progress

Emotional disturbances and not defective mental ability often may be the cause of a child's slow progress in school. This is the conclusion reached in a special study of 66 Illinois public school children made by Isaac Jolles, psychologist on the staff of Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction.

The children were referred to the department's division for the education of exceptional children as a first step toward taking the children out of classes for the normal and placing them in special classes for the mentally retarded because of their slow progress.

As a protection to these children the Illinois law, as amended June 13, 1945, requires that no child is eligible for special classes for the mentally handicapped except upon the recommendation of, or with the approval of, a qualified psychological examiner who meets the standards set up by the office of public instruction.

In the introduction to the study Mr. Jolles points out that too frequently our commonly accepted and used intelligence tests have formed the basis for segregation in the classroom, and that in many instances, test scores alone have been used as the basis for establishing eligibility for special classes. While not implying that these tests are poor or should not be used, Jolles does point out that they should not be accepted as the final word in every case.

The technique which Jolles used to reveal the hidden emotional disturbances in his subjects was Rorschach's ink-blot test. These ink-blots are meaningless, but most people imagine them to be a variety of things. Since the ink-blots themselves are meaningless, the things that a person sees in them are merely ideas projected onto the blots from the person's mind. Thus the Rorschach test is really an "X-ray" of an individual's entire personality structure. In this way it is possible, by analyzing an individual's responses to the test, to reveal hidden conflicts which may be a disturbing fac-

Through the use of case study material and Rorschach's test it was possible to uncover severe emotional disturbances of some sort in each of the 66 cases. Such emotional maladjustments, when removed by treatment, might enable the child to carry on normal educational functions. The results of this study convinced
